

Out in the Bush: An Aussie Echo Song

Adapted by Katherine Ruhle

♩ = ♪
♩ = 140

4 Out in the bush, (out in the bush,) where the gumtrees grow, (where the gumtrees
8 grow,) back to my home, (back to my home,) I dare not go (I dare not go,
12 For if I do, (for if I do,) my mother would say (my mother would say)
unison
17 "Have you ever seen a croc dancing on a rock, out in the bush?" You know I've (repeat an additional time each verse)
20 ne - ver seen a croc dan - cing on a rock. No, no, I've dan - cing on a rock.

V2 Did you ever see a snake baking a cake, out in the bush?
You know I've never seen a snake baking a cake
No, no I've never seen a croc dancing on a rock.

V3 Did you ever see a fly wearing a tie, out in the bush?
You know I've never seen a fly wearing a tie,
No, no I've never seen a snake baking a cake
No, no I've never seen a croc dancing on a rock.

V4 Did you ever see a roo sitting on a loo, out in the bush?.....

V5 Did you ever see a cocky riding like a jockey, out in the bush?.....

V6 Did you ever see a frog kissing a dog, out in the bush?....